PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT

All Rockingham Basketball & Recreation Association (RBRA) Players are required to carefully read and adhere to this 'Code of Conduct' immediately:

- Always compete in a hard, but fair manner at all times
- Show respect for all players, coaches, officials and scorers
- Never argue with an Official during a game. If you disagree, ask your Coach or Manager to approach the official during a break or after the game
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of Officials, sledging other players, and deliberately distracting or taunting an opponent is not acceptable behaviour and will NOT be tolerated by the RBRA. Technical fouls will incur a penalty
- Do not get involved in altercations between other players verbal or physical as this will likely make the situation worse not better. Allow officials to deal with altercations accordingly
- For Domestic competitions, technical fouls as a result of unacceptable behavioural conduct will result in missing the remaining half of basketball. Other non-behavioural technical fouls will not result in this punishment
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team. You will benefit, and so will everyone involved with your team
- Be a good sport. Appreciate all good plays, whether made by your team or the opposition
- Understand that your Coach is the main point of focus for instruction when at training or in matches and will be listened to with proper attentiveness. Without them there would be no team
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, regardless of their genders, ability, cultural background or religious beliefs

AGREEMENT

All persons playing, coaching, refereeing, and spectating in the basketball competitions conducted by the Association agree to abide by the RBRA Policies and Codes of Conduct as conditions of entry.

Breaches of the Associations Policies and Codes of Conduct by players, coaches or spectators will result in suspension. Repeated breaches of the Associations Policies and Codes of Conduct will result in expulsion from the competitions the Association conducts and from the Association if the person breaching the association is a player, coach, or ordinary member.

The suspensions and/or expulsions will be imposed by the RBRA Committee/Board.
